President's Message

Greetings fellow Council Dancers

Fall is on its way! Thank you for a great benefit dance put on by the Council Trustees: Dan McDonough, Bob Jackson, Kathy Divens and Tom Griffis.

The dance was very successful in raising a boat load of loot for the Wounded Warrior Project AND it was successful with a great amount of dancers coming out to via for "The Boot"! Thank you Cardinal Squares for bringing the most dancers. Wouldn't it be a great thing if ALL the clubs would try to BEAT Cardinals next year?? I'd say 22 dancers just might be the winner!! A special thanks to Wes Dyer, Homer Magnet, Elaine and Mary-Beth for blessing Wounded Warriors with their gifts of time too.

Renee' Arnett, President

Our club continued to dance throughout the hot summer, dancing on one night in August when the temperature hit 95 degrees. Of course, we requested all slow dances from Stuart, and Fay and Stuart and Fay postponed the teach dance until the weather was more cooperative.

Our club appreciates the posted Pavilion Calendar schedule on the bulletin board and wishes to thank the Pavilion scheduler for her quick response to our bookings/cancellations and questions.

Stuart and Fay continue to fill in for the Jobe's during their absence; and at the time of this writing, Stuart and Fay will be cueing/teaching at all the Jobe's schedule Monday and Sunday sessions through October.

Our dancers continue to learn the teaches presented at the July ICBDA Convention in Florida, as well as the dances presented at the August Round-A-Rama week at Purdue University, West Lafayette, IN.
