5. Ongoing Maintenance Activities:

Telephone: The phone is not working again. Margaret Blankenship offered to have Mancel check it (he has a pay phone business).

Motion Light: Ed Anderson asked about he motion light. The switch is supposed to be set so that the motion light will go on when there is motion. Ed suggested that the switch be taped or something so that folks won't turn it off.

6. Old Business:

Roof: The roof has been started by the contractor.

7. New Business:

Parking signs: A question was raised regarding what appear to be homemade signs trying to reserve spaces in the parking lot near the apartments. Could the Pavilion do the same? Ed Cordray said those signs had been there for as long as he has been in Ohio (10 years). No action to be taken.

Dumpster: Tom Dieterle asked about moving a dumpster to the kitchen side of the Pavilion. Ed Cordray is concerned about dumping if a dumpster were moved there. Dumping had occurred when the old dumpster was near the kitchen. No action to be taken.

Bank Account: Ed Anderson inquired as to options regarding interest bearing accounts. Fifth Third has said that we can not have an interest bearing account. We do not understand why. Ed was asked to look into the rules of organization accounts with other banks.

The meeting was adjourned at ? am. (sorry, Leslie forgot to write the time down – again.)
