President's Message

Hello, MVDC Dancers:

I hope you and your family are well. I feel honored to serve this year as your MVDC President.

A reminder to all clubs that it is important that they make sure that they have a club rep at all council meetings.

The Summer Plus Workshops will be starting the first Monday in June and continue for 8 weeks. The cost is $3.00 per dancer and the time will be from 7-9 pm.

Miami Valley 2025 Honor Dance Couple

Patty and Tim Dunn

Tim and Patty Dunn started lessons in 2000 and graduated with Kittyhawk Squares in 2001. Sam Dunn, a caller & Tim's brother, was their instructor. One of the unique aspects was traveling with his brother who was a caller. They felt blessed to travel all over Ohio, Michigan and Indiana dancing and being Sam's "roadies."

After two years, Sam moved to Florida, and Tim and Patty enjoyed dancing to the Good Ol' Boys and many other special dances.

At the same time, they were learning to participate in the teamwork of working on their club's committees such as the Canned Food Dance, serving as Raid Chairs for fifteen years traveling to additional Cincinnati & Columbus clubs, and Mystery trips. They also served free ice cream, directed games and passed out dangles at an event at Young Dairy in Yellow Springs.

Tim and Patty earned the Miami Valley Dance Council, the Ohio Corp of Dance Clubs Friendship badges, and completed the Century Club book of one hundred callers. They also completed a class of Dance by Definition.

The couple started Round Dancing in 2005 and participated in many Buckeye Round Dance events as well as many special Round Dance events in Ohio & Kentucky, and at State and National Conventions. After a two-year break due to COVID and knee surgery, Tim and Patty returned to dancing. They are currently supporting two clubs and are looking forward to many more years of dancing, serving and fellowship.

We are so fortunate to have Tim and Patty Dunn as dancers and as friends who share the love of dance. Tim and Patty's devotion as angels to assisting new dancers so they can become more successful is so important to them. They have shared the joy of dancing with their sons, daughter-in-law and grandchildren, and still are a fantastic part of the dance community.
