Dance lessons have started and all new dancers are welcome to the square dance community.

The Miami Valley Dance Council gives Honor Raider Badges for every 100 raid points earned. The Council also gives anniversary plaques for clubs who have been dancing for 25 years or more. When club members reach these levels, submit the information to me so that proper recognition can be given.

The MVDC Friendship Badge encourages dancers to visit other square dance clubs where they are not a member and not raiding or retrieving. Contact your Raid Chair or visit the MVDC website for more information.

Visit the MVDC website for information regarding all aspects of the Awards Program.

See you in a square,
Joan Hurley
